

Information and Reminders

Angels for Angels—updates

14 days to go! At the point of writing this newsletter we have 1287 fully completed and ready-to-go angels with many more in the pipe-line. Our target by the end of the day was originally 1300 but your donations and us beavering away at any spare moment we will certainly smash that target!

THANK YOU so much for all of your wonderful 'works of art'! It is truly inspirational how everyone is pulling together.

On TUESDAY MORNING. Border ITV News will be in school filming the children making angels and interviewing some of them about what we are doing and why—how exciting!

Yesterday, I received a very touching email from someone who works for NCIC—if we needed any incentive to keep going, I think this is it—what credit to our school community!:

Sarah,

Just read in our Team News that you and your little angels are making 7,000 angels for us here at NCIC. I wanted to send my personal heartfelt thanks to you in your leadership role and to the young people who are a shining example of kindness. The time you have each given to make this dream come true is incredible. You are all so creative and hard working. Giving up precious free time to do something for us is so humbling. You cannot imagine how much you have touched our hearts and we will be forever grateful to each and every one of you.

Children in Need

Thank you to everyone who supported Children in Need today—all donations will go direct to the charity.

HELP EARN FREE BOOKS

Scholastic is one of the largest providers of free books to schools via our Reward scheme which helps to ensure that as many children as possible have access to books that support reading for pleasure. Every time you buy from the Book Fair, you help to make a difference by supporting literacy in your child's setting. Last year, with your help, we gave over £5.3M worth of free books to schools nationwide, which stocked school libraries and classrooms.

*Free books are subject to terms and conditions. Please contact your Book Fair Organiser or Scholastic Book Fairs for details. All books subject to availability. Book range may vary. ⚠ Warning: Not suitable for children under 3. Small parts.
