

Non-Chronological Report Text Features Key

Text Title: _____

Here are the features of a report text. Use your coloured pens, pencils or highlighters to identify parts of your text which show each feature. For example, you could colour the 'present tense verbs' box in red, then use the same colour to underline examples of the present tense in your text.

	Topic title covers the whole subject.		Non-chronological reports use factual language .
	Brief introduction paragraph gives who/what/where overview.		Present tense verbs (unless it is a historical report, then it would be past tense).
	The information is organised into paragraphs .		Technical language may be explained in a glossary.
	Each category has a sub-heading .		Third person makes it impersonal.
	Some information may be in fact boxes or bullet-point lists.		Non-chronological reports have a formal tone .
	Extra details support the main points.		General language , not particular examples.
