

The NSPCC recently reported there are an average of 90 potential online abuse crimes against children which come to light every day.

Apps, games and social media sites all have their own official age ratings and risks which you need to be aware of.

Are you taking steps to make sure your children are safe online?

What you can do

- Search reviews of the most popular apps, games and social media sites your kids are using, and find tips and advice to help you keep them safe online, go to www.net-aware.org.uk.
- If you're worried about something a child or young person may have experienced online or are looking for advice on privacy settings, parental controls and more, call the NSPCC online safety helpline on 0808 800 5002.
