Information and Reminders

Nasal Flu Immunisations

Letters and forms regarding the flu immunisation programme, taking place in our school in October, have been sent home with children this week. Consent forms should be completed and returned to school within one week of receiving your letter to ensure your child receives their vaccination.

If you are looking for information, advice or guidance, you can call the NHS Hub on 01900 705045 or email ncm-tr.immunisation-hub@nhs.net

Starting School in September 2024

Please look out for the email and hard copy information that was sent out earlier this week with regard to the application process for parents/carers of children who are due to start in Reception in September 2024. Parents are asked to apply online and the deadline for applying for a school place is 15th January 2024.

Y6 Transfer to Secondary School

Please look out for the email and hard copy information sent out earlier this week outlining the process for the transfer to secondary school for Year 6 pupils. Parents are asked to make their applications online by the deadline of 31st October 2023. Please be aware, if your application is submitted late it may seriously affect your child's chances of being allocated a place at one of your preferred schools.

PTA AGM

The PTA Annual General Meeting is at 8pm on Tuesday 26th September at the Stone inn. Everyone welcome! See attached poster.

Phonics and Reading Evening - 19th September, 6pm, for R + Y1

A reminder that we are holding a session for Reception and Year 1 parents to tell them about how we teach 'Phonics' and reading so they can support their child at home. Please see a separate letter for details.

School Photos -19th September

A reminder that we will have the school photographer in school on Tuesday 19th September. If you would like any photos of your younger children as part of a family group, please arrive at 8.30am.

School Lunchtime and After School Clubs start next week. A letter is being sent out and bookings for the After School Clubs will be open online.
